M. Gibbs. The southeast walt fell soon after, and when daylight broke all that remained standing of the beautiful structure was a section of the north

another part of the city.

insisted, however on being taken home.

lady in, gave the driver his directions.

dark and unfrequented road, which led through a grove deserted at night.

utter a scream had choked and dragged

The brute treated his victim with execute his foul purpose.

deed was being done.

Chronicle.

warning to all others of his race.

An Alliance Bank

east corner and the elevator shaft. The

THE FOLETH SERMON OF DR. TAL-MAGE'S ITINERARY SERIES.

The Brook of Cherish, the Good Sameritain, the Nem's Morns of Jericho, and Ma y titler inspiring Scones and apreal to for mercy? Hush up: Why, appears to the following debutante, highly educated thirty, but as the day wore along, the day of missing and dead was reduced to seven or eight.

Strong men seemed paralyzed with subury to do. Others of the clay, the following debutante, highly educated thirty, but as the day wore along, the day wore along, the day wore along, the day wore along, the following debutante, highly educated thirty, but as the day wore along, the day wore along, the following debutante, highly educated thirty, but as the day wore along, the following debutante, highly educated thirty, but as the day wore along, the following debutante, highly educated the property of the following debutante, highly educated the following debutante, highly educated thirty, but as they sometimes retort. To and English, who are according to bride, by foct and voice, make equestrianism vand the pull on the bridle that you forend for slowing up of the pace may be mistaken for a hint that you want to outgallop the wind or wheel in wift circles I ke the hawk. But they can climb steps and descend precipices with skilled foot, and the one I chose for our journey in Paleshave the praise & going for without one stumbling step rocky steeps, where an ordinary horse would not for an h ur maistain sureful telness. There were eighteen of our party, and twenty-two beasts of burden entried our camp equipment. We are a d by an Arab sheik, with his black Nabian servant carrying a loaded gou in full sight, but it is the fact that this sheik represents the Turkish government which assures the safety history and were only now discovered. It is like the gorges of service or the chasms of th lowstone park. The sides of this Jehoseternity of depths overshadowed by an Within sight Mount Olivet and Gethermane and this in sunshine, we start out on the very road mentioned in the text when it says : constructed for brigandagesurprise and overpower an unarmed is death groan would be answered only by the echoes. On this road to-day we met groups of men who judging from their countenances have and lodging. in their veins the blood of many generations of Lob Roys. Josephus says that

usrd hearted official.

A CHRISTIAN IN PRACTICE. do anything by way of alleviation, beand also flug interest in Dr. Table magnetic many flug interest in Dr. Table magnetic many flug interest in Dr. Table and all advining countries is donor and by the thousands who are turned savery from the doors of the Brookly-A cardinary flug in a same neck as Thenia stream of the was alles expendent and a dynamic straiger how coming on this section of the flug is a Sameritan. They belong turned savery from the doors of the Brookly-A cardinary flug in the same and live and the l pain of these wounds, and the other is prostrated walls of Jericho rose again. wine, and your pulse is feeble and you can't walk; let me stay here and die." they come up again. And I thought a roar. The firemen shouted to stay where "Nonsense!" says the Samaritan. "You man appeared at the door of my tent, are not going to die. I am going to put you on this beast, and I will hold whence have you come?" and he said, wires were again demonstrated. The easy pillow." saddle, and at slow pace the extemporized ambulance is moving towards the tavern. "You feel better now, I think," ooked by Jerusalem walls—an "Yes," he says, "I do feel better." "Halloo, you landlord! help me carry from McDonald, Thomas County: able." That night the Samaritan sat up with the Jew, giving him water whenever he felt thirsty and turning water the mediately to suppress a riot of armed for mediately to suppress a riot of armed for whenever he felt thirsty and turning was regard the mercy of an armed negotian.

his pillow whenever it got hot, and in We are at the morning before the Samaritan gro mob. lord now I am obliged to go. Take count of the riot: It happened at good care of this man, and I will be Stokes turpentine mills, five miles from this read where a highwayman might all you do for him. Meanwhile here is ald's mills being the nearest station. I it would there and then buy of food and wounded one negro, driving off became ichbers. So late as 1820 Sir where the tragedy had happened, I having it entirely at their mercy.

GOOD MEN IN ALL COMMUNIONS.

Frederick Helmiker, an English tourcould, as plainly as I now see the nearfrom Jeresalem to Jericho and shot and almost slain. There has never been any secretly of bractical Christianity is not been any secretly in the secretly i ists, was attacked on this very road est man to this platform, see that Bible assault is uncertain. been any sacreity of bandits along the of practical Christianity is worth more With the fresh memory of some recent violence in their minds Christells ligion in five minutes than that ministhe people of the good Samaritan who ter and that Levite had in a lifetime. came along that way and took care of and the most accursed thing on earth a poor fellow that had been set upon is national prejudice, and I bless God and four white men were shot down. vibalinous Arabs and robbed and that I live in America, where Gentile and and cut. We encamped for and Jew, Protestant and Catholic can and cit. We encamped for and Jew, Protestant and Catholic can Chronicle. Later information by the could to be the tayern where where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where in the creek need to be the tayern where the creek need to be the creek need to be the tayern where the creek need to be the creek ne uilding, said to be the tavern where where in the great national crucible the scape spoken of in the Bible culmi- the differences of sect and tribe and Totalde i in the dust and ghast- people are being molded into a great and it is believed there will be no more ly with wounds the victim of this high- brotherhood, and that the question way rethery lay in the middle of the which the lawyer flung at Christ, and read—a feet of which I am certain be which brought forth this incident of cause the Libble says the people passed the good Sa aaritan—'Who is my neighby on either side. There were 12,000 bor? is bringing forth the arswer, priests living at Jericho, and they had 'My neighbor is the first man I meet in nee for Congress in the Ninth District followed. Miss Tanner was not ser-lead anyhow. This highway robbery tyranny, not a pulace of sin, not an enought to be stopped, for it hinders as terprise of unrugateousness, could stand Levites on our way up to the temple. the mighty throb of such atmospheric There, I have lost five minutes already! pulsation. Music! It sounded at the Go along, you least!" he shouts as he laying of creation's corner stone when strikes his heels into the sides of the the morning stars sung together. Musiciant was the country of the morning stars sung together. Musiciant was the country of the sides of the start was the side of the sides of t animal carrying him, and the dust sic! It will be the last reverberation, rising from the road soon hides the when the archangel's trumpet shall wake the dead. Music! Let its full A Graphic Description of the Most Ca-

power be now tested to comfort and But a third person is coming along bless and arouse and save. this read. You cannot expect him to sounding the trumper for salva-TION. BROOKLYN, Cet. 19.—The widespread cause he and the wounded man belong to different nations, which have about the city walls seemed to me white with cotton such as Thenius describes as once pointed hotel in Central New York, is said:

It is the morning of December 5 in Jerusalem, and we take stirrups for the real along which the wayfarer of cell following which the wayfarer of cell following which the wayfarer of cell following this way and says: "This counter the real along which the wayfarer of cell following this way and says: "This cell following the Fountain of Enshalts of the Gentral Fallow was suggesting in the Fountain of Enshalts of the Fountain of Enshalts of the Fountain of Enshalts of the Gentral Fallow was suggested with fear and knew not what to do. Others in more confined way from the fear and knew not what to do. Others in the Central Fallow was expected to the Central Fallow was expected to return on a cold following station, but on the electric curve and the Fountain of Enshalts of the Gentral Fallow was calculated with fear and knew not what to do. Others in more confined when the Central Fallow was calculated with fear and knew not what to do. Others in more confined when the fear and knew not what to do. Others in more confined was expected to return on a cold full way station, but on the fear and knew not what to do. Others in more confined was expected to return on a cold full was e old fell among thieves who left him wounded man and says: "This wounded and half dead. Job's picture wounded and half dead. Job's picture and our ancestors worshiped in the orient as having of the horse in the orient as having neck "clothed with thunder" is not that makes us brothers. God pity him, true of most horses now in Palestine.

as I do." And he gets down on his gardens, and all the hovels mansions, forgotten. It was agonizing in the extense of most horses now in Palestine. here is no thunder on their necks, knees and begins to examine his and all the funerals bridal processions, treme. In many windows of the five wounds and straighten out his limbs to and all the blood of war was turned stories of the burning oulding could be wounds and straighten out mis minos to see if any of his bones are broken, and they sometimes retort. To said English, who are according horizontal english, who are according to take care of you. Let the distribution of the broken into dahlias, and all the blood of war was turned into dahlias, and all the groans became some horizontal english. But it is a submerged by "Paradial englishes and straighten out mis himos to and all the blood of war was turned into dahlias, and all the groans became some horizontal englishes. But it is a submerged by "Paradial englishes and all the blood of war was turned into dahlias, and all the groans became some horizontal englishes. But it is a submerged by "Paradial englishes and all the blood of war was turned into dahlias, and all the groans became some horizontal englishes. But it is a submerged by "Paradial englishes and all the blood of war was turned into dahlias, and all the groans became some horizontal englishes and all the blood of war was turned into dahlias, and all the groans became some horizontal englishes. But it is a submerged by "Paradial englishes and all the blood of war was turned into dahlias, and all the groans became some horizontal englishes. But it is a submerged by "Paradial englishes and all the groans became into dahlias, and all the groans became int me feel of your pulse! Let me listen dise Regained," and tears became crysto your breathing! I have in these tals, and crue! swords came out of struggling in each other's arms. The bottles two liquids that will help you. foundries glistening plowshares, and in The one is oil, and that will soothe the my dream at the blast of a trumpet the

And some one told me that as these feel faint, and that will stimulate you. walls in Joshua's time at the sounding Now I must get you to the nearest trumpets of doom went down, now at tavern." "Oh, no," says the man, "I the sounding trumpet of the gospei you on till I get you to a place where "I am the Someritan you heard of at wires were in the way and prevented you can have a soft mattress and an the tayern on the road from Jerusalam the raising of the ladders. Minutes seemeasy pillow."

Now the Samaritan has got the wounded man on his feet, and with just come from healing the last wound much tugging and lifting puts him or of the last unfortunate in all the earth this sheik represents the Turkish the safety strong the safety one, as you have seen a mother after three weeks of sleepless watching of her boy, down with scarlet fever, lift thad not been memorable in the beast, for it is astonishing how the least unfortunate in air the earth. And I rose from my pillow in the tent to greet him, and my dream broke and I realized it was only a dream, but a dream which shall become a glorious reality as surely as God is true and christis gospel is the world's Catholitis in the last unfortunate in air the earth. And I rose from my pillow in the tent to greet him, and my dream broke and I realized it was only a dream, but a dream which shall become a glorious reality as surely as God is true and christis gospel is the world's Catholitis (from cough to lounge And some controlled in the last unfortunate in air the earth. which, if it had not been memorable in history and were only now discovered, this sympathetic Samaritan has until the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, as it the heginning is now and ever the wires and her because the history and were only now discovered.

We are at the mercy of an armed negro mob. F. M. STOKES."

started on his journey he said, "Land- The latest information gives this acalong here soon again and pay you for the railroad, in Coffee County, McDonsomething to meet present expenses." seems that F. M. Stokes, D. B. Varna The "two pence" he gave the landlord and Thomas Seers, white men, disputed sounds small, but it was as much as ten about a tract of land. Varna put his dollars here and now, considering what | men to work on the timber. Seers shot the others. Returning in the afternoon with a As on that December noon we sat posse Seers found the negroes again under the shadow of the tavern where there and fired into the crowd. To rethis scene of mercy had occurred, and venge themselves on Seers the negroes just having passed along the road armed and assaulted the settlement.

of action since the messenger left there that matters were somewhat quieted.

the result of the representatives that the Alliance of the representatives tha

A HOTEL DISASTER.

THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN THE WORK OF A FIRE FIEND

The parents of the young lady drove with woman evidently wanted to throw her-self out of the window. Below them was a sea of tlames. Shortly after they were lost to view. On the fifth floor toward the Fayette street side four women appeared at a window. Their screams for help could be heard above the din and ed hours while one of the laddermen mounted the rounds and cut the wires.

Among the frightened women at the window was Annie Cummins, one of the servants. Her companions tried to persuade her from jumping headiong in the street while the ladder men were at work hoisting ladders. Willing lands had hold of the jumping net. The Cummins woman jumped with the evident inten-

The Cummins woman in her descent aided put the wounded man in the was at the beginning, is now and ever struck the wires, and her body bounded mangled heap seven feet from the net. Meanwhile the ladder men were work- of her father's door, when he rudely of the ladder men mounted the ladder and, standing on the topmost round, reached up and helped down the three women. It was the work of a horo, the brutal attack. Had the Cummins women waited a heard of again until yesterday in Eumoment or two her life would have been sayed. centre of the building was a court yard. Here was being enacted similar scenes to those on the outside of the building. The guests in the rooms facing this court in many instances had to make their escape by this means. Some jumped, while others used the fire es-

On the roof of the boiler house located at the west side of the building, at one time lay six or seven persons uu-than a templeful of ecclesiasticism, and that good Sameritan had more retion of the building. . He with a couple loor, when they could go no further.

Corn Tanner, an actress, ande escape by the fire escape. Upon being aroused attion of the subject, and the matter is the Pacific, would surpass Eden in plenty, beauty and glory.

God has given to us a beautiful floor, when they could go no further. cupied by a gentleman who was about siderable encouragement expressed by governments. to lower himself by the fire escape. She all to whom the project has been sug-cried to him, "For God's sake save me!" gested. ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 23 .- Colonel Tom | And the man stopped in his flight and Winn is a plucky little alliance man who adjusted the escape to Miss Tanner. gates elected at meetings of the various misery and the graveyard of labor.

The colour of th

GIVE THE FARMER A CHANCE. They Should at Least be Given an Even Start with Monopolies.

latter stood like a monument, threaten-Mr. Augustus R. Wright, of Georgia, ing to fall at any moment. Fortunately, there was little or no wine, and the writes as follows in the Southern Cultivator and Dixie Farmer. There is a mighty volume of flame rose high in lamitous Configuration Since the Lon- the air, raining down showers of sparks | great deal of force in what Mr. Wright and burning embers on the vast crowds says, and, sooner or later the evils comwhich had assembled and encangering plained of must be remedied or there recar-by property.

The horrible loss of life and property will be revolution. That this govern-committee changes. last night is in all human probability ment is now run in the interest of the due to a fire fiend. Richard Perry, of the insurance firm of Bowan & Perry; out the land not only to the detriment.

Farmers say, and their true friends say, no man shall hereafter hold office

their carrage to the Central depot where, the power of the money class through as she reached the city by the East the government, has manifestly gotten Tennessee road, whose station is in all of their honest toll and other labor-Her parents finding she had not ar- That, while they are not starving, as ers, in the last quarter of a century. rived on the train they met, drove home, they are in Europe, yet they have few suspecting nothing wrong. Meantime | comforts and fewer luxuries; that while the young lady had alighted from the train at the depot on the opposite side of the town, and was surprised and be-to bon sholding usurers at ruinous rates wildered at not being met by some of interest; that while statistics show member of the family. She sought the zid of a police officer, who advised her to go to some hotel for the night. She to keep off the officers of the law.

insisted, however on being taken home. They say—their brother laborers she had been away for the summer and say—this thing shall have an end; that was in a fever of expectancy at the death is preferable to the degraded life prospect of meeting her loved ones capital proposes labor." Labor does again. On her insistance the police-man called a cab driver by the name of Will singleton and assisting the name of Will Singleton, and assisting the young | the right!

The farmers would not ask loans The negro drove away with his fare, from the government if the governbut instead of taking a direct route to ment was not engaged in the business her father's house he drove her by a of lending, and has been for more than a quarter of a century, without inthrough a grove deserted at night. Heres, suddenly stopping his earriage he turned upon the heretofore unsuspecting girl and before she could even what for? To lend to the working classes at rates of interest the devil her from the carriage and proceeded to would blush to own. Money never blushes. It wants more. The farmers want to borrow money to pay their ghoulish cruelty, tearing her garments debts. These rich fellows want it to and bruising and maltreating her most shave with. Oh! but these rich fellows shamefully. Having gratified his bru-can secure their debts by depositing al passions he put her in the carriage and drove her within a hundred yards | The working classes have not got any The poor girl managed to struggle to lend again. Why not lend to the work-Since then she has been lingering be- steads, around which cluster all the tween life and death from the effects of noble emotions of wife and children and home. Are bonds more secure at The rapist disappeared and was not nearly whole value, than homesteads faula, Ala. He was taken from the It is nonsense to talk about the seen dropping from the windows or sliding down the fire escapes. In the train a few miles from Macon by an greater security of the bonds. Why also? No man living can give a reason The brute had previously been idenprofits of this oppressive and detestable the work with the feeling that a good monopoly, which has already pretty well absorbed the wealth of the whole

A large placard was fastened to the country. The government not only lends to the body of the negro as the wind swayed it to and fro, on which was inscribed a rich only, but it exempts their property (the bonds) from taxation. Bonds All present took an oath not to reveal create no wealth; lands are the foundathe name of the young lady .- Augusta tion of all wealth. Bonds in their in-COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 18 .- There was exempt from taxation it is land en-The Waycrosz Rilles, by order of the Governor, are now on their way there. Nothing has been heard from the scene of action since the messenger left there. for the purpose of ascertaining their and woe, our beloved land from Maine The above is taken from the Augusta of hosemen, had reached the fourth views on the advisability of establish-

Associated Press say that one of the men who were shot down is dead, and by the fire escape. Upon being aroused tation of the subject, and the matter is now fairly started and will, no doubt. Sometimes were somewhat, on ice of all lands and the freet of all lands and the freeton of the subject, and the matter is now fairly started and will, no doubt. to the first open room, which was oc- be carried out, as there has been con- liest of all lands, and the freest of all Covetousness, controlling government, if not arrested, will make it, as The gentlemen present were the dele- it has in Europe, the charnel house of

A BIG TARIFF SOARE.

Talk about Fighting the Mckinley Act in WASHINGTON, October 23.-A number of newspapers this morning publish articles foreshadowing attempts to contest the legality of the McKinley The Vendetia in New Orleans-Over Fifty tariff upon various grounds, one being clerical errors and omissions in the onrolment of the bill with the conference

Concerning these publications Secretary Windom said this morning he knew nothing officially about protests tent legal tribune, such as the Supreme court, decides that the law is unconstitutional. It is not for me to question the validity of any of the signature to recognize who it was that wanted to tures to the bill as enrolled, neither is it for me to determine whether the bill signed by the President did or not. in about a foot from the gate, with a light-

The young lady had been away from home and was expected to return on a train reaching the city at 11 o'clock at night. By some misunderstanding the parents of the young lady drove with parents of the young lady drove with their regretations of the war. They say that monopolies created by the Central depot where stand it the Act of October 1, 1890, is the law of the land. My duty, therefore, is plain and I shall execute its provisions to the best of my ability. Its constitutionality is a question for the Courts and until they decide the court of the land. It is a function for the court of the land of it stands.' Attorney General Miller positively declined to discuss the question in any of its bearings, saying it would be manifestly improper for him to do so Judge Hollander, arrived in a few minwith the execution of the tobacco pro- ment by saying: visions of the law, confined his remarks | "We knew that Chief Hennessay and in regard to the alleged illegality of the provenzanos were good people.

experienced employee of the House is the latest in a series of crimes which said to-day: have caused many deaths. In June a "Precedents of unnumbered years gang of Italian bravos lay in wait at leave no doubt that an error, whether | midnight for another party of Italians, of omission or commission, in the en-| Matrangas, who had offended them in rolment of a bill passed by Congress some way or other, and riddled the en-ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 22.—Governor Gordon to-night received this dispatch from McDoreld Thomas County.

Meanwhile the radder men were work-pushed her out, and telling her that if the bonds? Who pays the interest on the bonds? Who pays the interest on the bonds? Who pays the bonds the bonds which the error received this dispatch from McDoreld Thomas County.

Meanwhile the radder men were work-pushed her out, and telling her that if the bonds? Who pays the interest on the bonds? Who pays the bonds thempened the would kill her, drove rapidly believed to the bonds? Thomas County. from McDonald, Thomas County:

"Send one company of troops im"Send one company of troops imfound it was short, but this was quickly succeeded by a cheer when one of the ladder mark invalidates not only the part of tried. During the trial one of the printhe bill to which the error is relevant, cipal witnesses an Italian, was assassinabut the entire measure, would established. The trial resulted in a conviction, lish chaos in the affairs of the Govern- but there was so much perjury that the ment and compel Congress to remain Judge granted a new trial, which is yet constantly in session to correct im-mediately on discovery errors in bills Chief of Police Hennessy, who was a signed by the President in order that witness in the first case, set to work to the operations of the Government collect all the evidence about the Mafia, might be carried on. It is safe to say the Stopalingieri and other Italian assasthat an error occurs in at least one ap- | sination societies, and about the numertified both by his victim and by a police-man who knew him, and the crowd did profits of this oppressive and detestable entertained by the accounting officers the Italians growing out of the Matiof the Government, or by any one else, anaga affair, he found it possible to as to the validity of all the appropriations except the particular one affected sational character, and he promised by such error. In the encolment of the such developments as would break up Tariff Act of 1883 a comma was improperly used in the 'fruit plant' para-graph, and the manifest intention of was running. He was a man of cour-Congress thereby defeated to the great age and fearlessness, but he deemed it whole people. If anything ought to be loss of the customs revenues, but there | p was no question as to the validity of received, to guard himself, and never other provisions of the law when it was passed upon by the Supr-me Court.

During the very last session of Congress an error was made in the entrol-lieving that he could protect himself or ment of the river and harver appropriation bill by the emission of two ciphers. The assessins evidently knew this, and in the amount appropriated for the im- made their preparations for revenge. provement of the Illinois River, so that $1,000 instead of $100,000 was appropriated. A week or more after the bill became law the error was discovered and Congress promptly passed a joint became when the congress promptly passed a joint became when the congress promptly passed a joint became when the congress promptly passed a joint became was carefully planned.

similar errors. Congress enacted no pre-vision to give legal effect to the re-block on which Hennessy lived, so that

ONE OF CHIEF HENNESSY'S MURDER. ERS MORTALLY WOUNDED.

Hallans Arrested on the Charge of Being Implicated in the Midnight Assas-

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 17 .- While the see him. Duffy, who was standing fact, pass the lower house. Much less ming like motion drew a revolver from is it for me to determine whether omes- his hip pocket, and, putting it within a any other provision of the bill invan- trigger, and the Italian with a groan fell dates the law as a whole. As I under- back in the corridor, the blood spurting against it I shall be governed by it as five more men like me." Duffy was unless it came to him in an official way. The commissioner of internal revenue, thing to say before he died and replied Mr. Mason, who is specially charged in the affirmative. He began his state the law to the following:

"I will obey the law as certified by the Screetary of State. It is not for me idea is the Matrangas did that to keep to say whether or not the emission of the provenzanos in jail. Oh, my God, the tobacco rebate provisions vitiates I am going to die," and Scaffida closed the law. Being merely an executive his eyes and remained silent.

officer of the Government I must eat More than fifty arrests have bee force it as I find it. Anyhow, the to- made of parties believed to be implibacco schedule does not take effect un- cated in the assassination and to-day til January 1, so that if Congress de- another Italian, Pedro Natal, was idensires to refund the two cents a pound tified by Officer Lannagan as one of the on all tobacco on hand when the law men he saw running away from the takes effect it has ample time to legis-late to that end."

No clarm is felt here among the that the murder of Chief Hennessy was friends of the McKinley bill as to the the deliberately planned work of an legality of its enactment. An old and organized band of Italians. The crime have caused many deaths. In June a rudent, from the many threats he the assassins evidently knew this, and

There was a meeting of the Italian resolution to correct it. The fact that Two gangs of men were detailed for it. in this joint resolution, as in numer- They were armed with revolvers and ous others passed for the correction of blunderbusses, and concealed them-